Lately Pupliſhed by Peter Williamſon, and ſold at his ſhop, PRICE TWO SHILLINGS,

THE tranſactions of the Britiſh farmer accountant, adapted to the four ſeaſons of the year, wherein the Gentlemen farmers have a plan of books entirely new, and ſuitable to their occupation. The method here laid down is ſo rational and obvious, that it may be practiſed by any one who underſtands the common rules of arithmetic.

By following this plan, the farmer can. with very little trouble, know the ſituation of his affairs at any ſeaſon. Together with a plan of a ſowing book for the ſpring ſeaſon; alſo, a calculation for the harveſt ſeaſon, with every other occurence in the farming way. By JOHN ROSE, Accountant.

At the ſame place may be had, price Twopence, The Act of Sederunt, anent removings.

The Publiſher continues to Print Advertiſements, Shop Bills, &c. upon his new invented Military and Maritime Printing Preſs. Thoſe who chuſe to employ him in the Printing line, may depend upon having their Work well and ſoon done, and at moderate rates

Likewiſe are Publiſhed, the Pſalms of David in meter, by (Tait and Brady,) upon a very ſmall ſcale, Price Sixpence in Sheets; and, when bound, may be tranſported in an ordinary ſnuff box.

Alſo are Publiſhed, upon the ſame plan, the Pſalms of David, as they are uſed in the Church of Scotland, and approved of by the General Aſſembly.

N. B. The publiſher once thought never to have again undertaken ſo laborious a taſk as collecting the names and places of abode of the inhabitants, in order to publiſh a new Directory, the profits ariſing from the ſale being ſo greatly inadequate to the trouble and expence of preparing and correcting it for preſs; but, at the earneſt ſoliciation of ſeveral of his friends, who repreſented to him the utility of the work, and likewiſe aſſured him that no perſon in buſineſs would heſitate to allow him the ſmall ſum of two pence for inrolling their names in a work ſo neceſſary and ſo well calculated for the promulgation of their reſpectivs profeſſions,—he has been induced once more to attempt ſerving the Public by publiſhing a new and correct edition of the Edinburgh Directory.—But, as the two pence for enrolment has been paid by very few, he is under the neceſſity of making the price of it for this year One Shilling and Two Pence, a ſum ſtill much below its intrinſic value, acquainting the public, that as he means to take no advantage of their generoſity, thoſe who have paid two pence for enrolling their names, ſhall have the book upon the payment of One Shilling only, and thoſe who have not are to pay One Shilling and Two Pence.—This he hopes will ſatisfy the Public that he has no deſign of impoſing upon any perſon; as the great utility of the work, the ſmallneſs of the price, and the trouble and fatigue of the undertaking will evidently appear to the moſt ſuperficial obſerver.

The Publiſher has been at great trouble in correcting the above liſt; but as it is impoſſible to avoid errors altogether, in a work of this nature, he hopes thoſe gentlemen who have been improperly deſigned or omitted, will give in their names to the Penny Poſt office, Luckenbooths, where a book will be kept for entering them, and the miſtakes corrected in an appendix, which he propoſes to publiſh about the 1ſt of Auguſt, and deliver to the purchaſers of the Directory gratis.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

The Compiler of this useful work thinks himself highly honoured, in having the opportunity of dedicating this small tribute of his thanks to you, and to none else could he so properly address himself. At same time that he humbly aims at acquitting himself of this duty, he thinks it incumbent on him to represent to every grateful and sensible Citizen, your assiduity in ornamenting and beautifying this Metropolis, by planning out and putting into Execution an easy communication to its center, which must be forever acknowledged by the Inhabitants of this City, to be a Necessary Good, flowing from the projection of men of integrity and ability, who have spared no pains to set on foot, and carry through a work so essentially beneficial to the community at large; and that you may live to see your successors in office enabled to finish the work agreeable to your plan, is, and shall be the earnest wish of,

My Lord and Gentlemen,

Your most obedient and most humble servant,

P. WILLIAMSON.

My Lord, and Gentlemen,

At the earneſt requeſt of a reſpectable part of the Inhabitants of Edinburgh, I have been induced, once more, to make an actual Survey of the City, and its much extended Suburbs, and to publiſh a Directory for the preſent year.

The Patronage I have always received from the Magiſtrates of Edinburgh, I acknowledge with gratitude; and flatter myſelf they will approve of the preſent Publication.

That the City may flouriſh to the remoteſt ages—that the noble efforts made by the preſent Chief Magiſtrate for its embelliſhment, the convenience of its inhabitants, and for the deſirable object of making the Port and Harbour of Leith, (ſo intimately connected with this City), more extenſive and commodious for trade—may be crowned with ſucceſs, is the ſincere wiſh of,

My Lord, and Gentlemen,

Your moſt obedient humble ſervant,

P. WILLIAMSON.
